INITIAL IDEAS FOR YOUR OWN MONOLOGUE

You are now going to start thinking about writing your own monologue. You can choose to write your monologue from the perspective of either –

A Celebrity

OR

A Fictional Character

Come up with three initial choices for your monologue and fill in the table below.

Character/ Celebrity
What do I know about them.

Character/ Celebrity
What do I know about them.

INITIAL IDEAS FOR YOUR OWN MONOLOGUE

Now you need to narrow down what you will be speaking about in your monologue. Firstly choose which celebrity/fictional character you will be writing as.

My choice is _____

Fill in the table from the perspective of your chosen character to help you narrow down your monologue's focus. You might need to do some research beforehand.

TOPIC	WHAT IS IT ABOUT?	WHY	MOOD/ ATMOSPHERE	ANY OTHER DETAILS
A life changing event.
The most important person in your life.
Your favourite place.
A special memory.
Your biggest regret.
Your dreams/ goals.
Other topic of choice.

CHARACTER CARD

Fill in the character card to help you understand more about your celebrity/fictional character. This will help you write a more detailed and realistic monologue.

Name
Age
Occupation
Background
What my character thinks about themselves
What others think about my character
How my character is feeling during the monologue
Who is your character talking to in this monologue?
Where is the monologue taking place?
How do they talk? (Describe their voice)
How do they move? (Describe their movement)
