

Multiple-Choice (Mark the best answer on the Student Answer Sheet.)

1 Which of the following is a complete sentence?

- A Walking quietly under the bridge.
- B Because Austin ran a marathon.
- C Sara caught the ball.
- D The lovely sunny and warm day.

2 Choose the sentence that is written correctly.

- A The gardener's weeded the rock garden.
- B We went over to Lily's house.
- C The cars door was broken.
- D The bicycles tire was flat.

3 Choose the best option that combines the information in the boldfaced statements:

Tablets are convenient.Computers have bigger screens.*Many people prefer to read email on their cell phones.*Cell phones are very portable.

- A Although tablets are convenient and computers have bigger screens, many people prefer reading email on their cell phones because they are very portable.
- B Tablets are convenient, computers have bigger screens, many people prefer to read email on their cell phones; they are very portable.
- C Tablets are convenient and computers have bigger screens but many people prefer to read email on their cell phones and they are very portable.
- D Tablets are convenient, computers have bigger screens because many people prefer to read email on their cell phones or they are very portable.

4 Choose the best word to fill in the blank.

The currency is dollars in North America, _____ it is pounds in the United Kingdom.

- A because
- B whereas
- C if
- D so

5 What punctuation is missing from this sentence?

If I wear my running shoes on a snowy day I might fall on the sidewalk.

- A a colon
- B a period
- C a semicolon
- D a comma

End of Section B.

Continue to Section C.