

Lesson 4: Vocabulary

Read the conversations. What values are they talking about? Write your answer on the line. In class, talk about why you chose the values. Then practice the conversations with a partner.

1. _____

A: I don't understand this homework at all!

B: Don't worry. I'll help you.

2. _____

Mom: It's important to help your friends when they need it. And not to gossip about them. And if someone says something bad about them, you shouldn't agree.

Son: I know, Mom. You tell me all the time!

3. _____

A: Mateo always uses Mr. and Mrs. when he is talking with people he just met.

B: And he never interrupts.

4. _____

A: Collin never tells a lie.

B: Yeah, and at a store, if someone gives him too much money, he never keeps it.

5. _____

A: Last night Mr. Sher stayed at school to help me until 8:00.

B: He's really great. He always gives students help, even when he needs to do other things.

6. _____ and _____

Radio announcer: Last night, there was a big fire on Main and First. Before the firefighters got there, some neighbors went into the house and helped the people. We have a caller who was there.

Caller: It was amazing. The fire was everywhere. But the neighbors went in, even though it was really dangerous.

7. _____

A: Massimo doesn't give up. If he can't do something, he keeps practicing until he can.

B: I know. I saw him practicing basketball for four hours last Saturday!

8. _____

News reporter 1: And now, a fantastic story! Last night, there was a big car accident.

News reporter 2: That's right, Bob. Two cars drove by without doing anything. But then a man stopped to help, and because of him, no one died.

News reporter 1: He reminds us that it is important to help others.

9. _____ and _____

A: That team is famous because when they win, they are really kind to the other team.

B: And when they lose, they are kind, too.
