

Blitzball

Definition: A game resembling soccer but played with a large ball and large numbers of players on a field which contains two goals, players advance, pass, and kick the ball as in soccer but are also allowed to throw it.

Boundaries

Definition: Limits that define acceptable behavior or action; the dividing lines between different areas of social interaction.

Ceremoniously

Definition: In a formal and dignified manner, often involving ritual or ceremony.

Sportsmanlike

Definition: Behaving in a fair, respectful, and gracious manner, especially in competitive sports.

Bumblers

Definition: People who move clumsily or awkwardly, often due to lack of coordination or inexperience.

Trampling

Definition: To tread heavily or forcefully upon something, causing damage or destruction.

New Hampshire

Definition: A state in the New England region of the northeastern United States, known for its picturesque landscapes, mountains, and forests.

Optimistically

Definition: In a hopeful, positive, and confident manner, expecting favorable outcomes.

unconsciously

Definition: Without awareness or intention, happening automatically or instinctively.