

Rubric

Category	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Knowledge (Understanding and Analysis of Concepts)	Shows limited understanding of international trade concepts, economic impact, and the benefits and drawbacks of International trade for Canada	Demonstrates a basic understanding of international trade concepts, economic impact, and the benefits and drawbacks of International trade for Canada	Shows a good understanding of international trade concepts, economic impact, and the benefits and drawbacks of International trade for Canada	Demonstrates a thorough understanding of international trade concepts, economic impact, and the benefits and drawbacks of International trade for Canada
Communication (Clarity and Effectiveness in Oral Presentation and Debate)	Communication is unclear or disorganized, making it difficult for others to follow. Little to no use of evidence or examples to support arguments.	Communication is somewhat clear, but may lack fluency or be difficult to follow at times. Uses some evidence or examples, but they may be weak or not fully relevant.	Communicates clearly and in an organized manner, making effective use of evidence and examples to support arguments.	Communication is highly clear, well-organized, and engaging. Arguments are supported by strong, relevant evidence and examples that enhance the message.
Application (Applying Knowledge to Group Work and Strategy Development)	The student has difficulty identifying and suggesting relevant strategies for Canada to attract foreign investment, and their input	The student can identify and suggest some strategies for attracting foreign investment, but these strategies may lack depth or consideration	The student identifies and suggests practical and relevant strategies for Canada to attract foreign investment, considering both	The student identifies, suggests, and develops innovative and well-reasoned strategies for attracting foreign investment, showing a deep in group work is minimal or incorrect	of potential challenges.	benefits and potential challenges.	understanding of potential benefits, challenges, and real-world application.

Thinking (Engages in critical thinking by identifying and explaining economic factors and their impact on Canada's international trade)	Shows limited engagement in critical thinking when identifying and explaining economic factors and their impact on Canada's international trade	Shows some engagement in critical thinking by identifying and explaining the economic factors and how it affects Canada's International trade	Shows engagement in critical thinking by identifying and explaining economic factors and their impact on Canada's international trade.	Engages in deep critical thinking by identifying and explaining economic factors and how they affect Canada's international trade.