

“Do not try to do extraordinary things but do ordinary things with intensity.”

Emily Carr

1. Before the 1900s, Canadian landscape painting was done in a traditionally European style. ---True ---False
2. In Canada today, many artists continue to explore the landscape as a way of
 - a) Expressing their personal connection to their natural environment.
 - b) Experimenting with abstract art forms.
 - c) Replicating famous European landscapes.
 - d) Creating sculptures in urban settings.
3. What do you know about the Group of Seven?

About Emily Carr

4. Emily Carr was born in:
5. Emily was famous for painting:
6. She came east for the opening and met members of -----in Toronto, beginning a lifelong correspondence with Lawren Harris.
7. This painting, Autumn in France, by Emily Carr is inspired by:

8. What information do you have about the painting titled “Fir Tree and Sky”?

