Part 2

Write the words from Part 1 and your own advice to complete the conversations. You may have to change the forms of the words in Part 1. In class, practice the conversations with a partner.

1. A: My friend _____ lying about me. It never seems to stop.
B: Have you thought about _____ her? Maybe you could talk to her sometime when it's just the two of you.
A: Hm, I'm not really sure that would work. She's really _____ and likes to be in control.
B: Well, have you tried _____?
A: That's not a bad idea. Thanks.
2. A: I don't know what to do. I told my friend a big secret, but she told everyone.
B: It must have been really _____ the next time you saw her.
A: Yeah, it was. And after that I really _____ her for betraying me.
B: Did you ever tell her? You might want to think about talking to her about it.
A: I can't talk with her about it right now because she isn't _____ me these days.
B: Well, then you might want to consider _____.
A: That's worth thinking about. Thanks.
3. A: I don't know how you _____ your sister. She's so controlling.
B: I know, but I don't know what to do.
A: You might want to consider talking with her about it.
B: Do you really think that's a good idea? She might get even worse!
A: You're right. Well, another idea is _____.
B: That might work. I'll give it a try.
