

Inquiry Activity

Research Task

Choose ONE topic:

- Grandparent-led families in Canada
 - Caregiver stress
 - Parent-child attachment
 - Single-parent family challenges
 - Work-life balance in families
-

Inquiry Process

Step 1 – Develop a Research Question

Step 2 – Investigate

Use:

- articles
 - interviews
 - government statistics
 - academic research
-

Step 3 – Process Information

Students should:

- compare evidence
 - connect theories
 - identify patterns
-

Step 4 – Communicate Findings

Possible formats:

- slideshow
 - report
 - poster
 - infographic
 - class discussion
-

Consolidation Questions

1. What are the most important functions of families?
 2. How do diverse family forms meet similar needs?
 3. Which family theory best explains modern Canadian families?
 4. How does caregiving affect family relationships?
 5. Why is research important when studying families?
-

Exit Ticket

Write 3–5 sentences explaining:

- one thing you learned about family relationships
 - one theory you found interesting
 - one question you still have about families in Canada
-

